

The following sequence diagram shows how the user creates an account and logs in using the facade, the datawriter then saves the user. The user starts the game then gets all rooms available, and starts in a room, a game session starts. The user submits an answer to a corresponding puzzle and then is told if their answer is correct or not. The game ends and a score is calculated, user is added to leader board and session is saved.

